

“Standing On a Sidewalk in NYC”

Focusing Question: What do do you think the poet is trying to tell the reader by using the image of the black feather at the end of the poem?

FOCUS: The poet is trying to show the reader that the feather is like the man. Like the feather, the man keeps trying for something better in life.

evidence about feather	evidence about man
explain the evidence: how does this show the feather trying for something better?	explain the evidence: how does this show the man trying for something better?